"On the Road to Destiny!"

Camp Meeting ... the words evoke a wonderful feeling of singing, preaching and fellowship. For New Horizons Ministries, we have had many years of great Camp Meetings from our time in Ada at the camp grounds with the open-air tabernacle, the little "cabins", the dusty roads and the memories of powerful services to our time at Tiger Mountain Conference Center in our newer facilities with excellent preaching, worship and fellowship. Over the years, the time spent at Camp Meeting has been reduced due to many reasons, but it was definitely quality time.

Days of Destiny ... words evoke a time of anointing, vision and preparation. NHM started using these words to describe our camp meeting time a few years ago. Though the titles changed, the experience was just as powerful for those who attended, enjoying great preaching, excellent praise and worship, informative teaching and, definitely, brotherly fellowship. The past few years have brought changes with new ideas, younger leadership in music, different class times and more family time for those in attendance.

To provide the best for all of our ministers and churches, we made the decision to have two separate events – Camp Meeting and Days of Destiny - each year for this quadrennium. The focus and style will be different for the events, but the quality and purpose will be the same...provide a great experience in worship, preaching, teaching and fellowship for our ministers and church members.

Days of Destiny ... will be June 25-26 at Tulsa SpiritLife Church. Featured Speakers are myself on Thursday evening and Apostle Ron Carpenter, Jr. on Friday evening. On Friday morning, we will offer training classes for our ministers and spouses. Music will include SCU One Voice and Heritage Trio. Childcare will be provided and Children's Church will be directed by Angela Ngyuen and Destination Kids. Our NHM Conference Session with Credentials Service and Awards will be June 27.

Camp Meeting ... will be October 1-2 at Tiger Mountain Conference Center. Featured Speaker is Rev. Bob Ely for both evening services. We will have special Southern Gospel music and a "hymnspiration" on Friday morning along with classes for ministers and spouses. Children's Church will be provided. Our NHM GO Rally and SCU Feast Offering will be on October 3.

Plan now to attend either or both of these great events. We are providing these for you!

Valuable... Holiness

First Lady Michelle Drake
nhmministerswives@gmail.com

"You sure don't look Pentecostal Holiness," is a statement I've heard throughout my life. It appeared I was missing the long sleeves, skirt and bun; and, we gals of the 80's were wearing blue eye shadow, red lipstick, big hair and bare legs with our dresses. My husband's grandmother was a bun-wearing IPHC saint! I know her and many other saints were praying for my generation. What are the rules to be a Pentecostal Holiness girl and a minister's wife? What is this "holiness" that I am supposed to succumb to?

The Bible is the revelation of our holy God, inspired by the Holy Spirit, who points to our holy Savior, who calls us with a holy calling to be holy as He is holy, so we may dwell with Him eternally in his holy city (1 Timothy 3:16; Revelation 4:8; 2 Peter 1:21; John 14:26; John 6:69; 2 Timothy 1:9; 1 Peter 1:15, 16; Revelation 21:2). Therefore, it stands to reason one of the seven specific core values we as IPHC ministers' wives prayerfully value is holiness. What is this holiness?

- Moral attributes revealed in God's character and expected to be evident within us: holiness, truth, goodness, love, patience, mercy.
- Experiential representation of God's holiness.
- Everything we receive from God as believers comes by way of God's mercy, grace and unconditional love.

On my quest to understand why my physical attire didn't quite measure up to the term "holiness", I discovered through the Word of God that true holiness is an inward conviction which will result in our outward display of God's holiness. More of Him and less of me! Unfortunately, misguided zeal has prompted some believers to drift into the quagmire of legalism. Holiness becomes a list of regulations that bind and burden, blotting out a lifestyle that is liberating and blessed.

The more we reflect God's holiness, the more unified we become in personal character. We value holiness in our daily walk with God. As believers who maintain a biblical worldview, we understand our relationship with God extends beyond the sanctuary. Because we value holiness, it will be evident in our walk, witness and work.

So, my grandmother-in-law would probably be a little concerned about all of the piercings and tattings, but I know that deep in her heart (and mine, too) she would want people to know the Lord and just live for HIM and reflect HIS character in their everyday ordinary life!

SNIDER NAMED NATIONAL EVANGELIST

The IPHC EVUSA Executive Council has designated NHM Assistant Superintendent Mick Snider as National Evangelist for the IPHC. Rev. Snider and his wife, Teresa, served as evangelists in the IPHC for sixteen years. As a National Evangelist for the IPHC, Rev. Snider is available to travel & preach revivals, camp meetings and conferences across the USA. The IPHC and NHM churches will be blessed by this ministry.

EVUSA encourages support of our National Evangelist, prayerfully and financially, in the same monthly manner as supporting missionaries. Financial support can be given by making a check payable to the local church and designating the funds using account #03129PxMSnider or directly to Mick Snider Ministries, Inc. (MSM), 6809 S. 1ST Street, Broken Arrow, OK, 74011. You may contact Rev. Snider at 918-381-3639.
