You are responding to a high and holy calling. It is a call that requires careful and diligent preparation. We are excited to have the opportunity to assist you with this process.

The following is a list of what needs to take place as you complete this application process.

- ✓ Follow the instructions on the “Instruction Form” (page 6) to complete the application process.
- ✓ NO application will be considered complete until all required documents are received in the conference office. Please use the enclosed “Checklist” (page 7) to track your progress. DO NOT leave any portion of the application blank. Keep this Checklist for your records.
- ✓ Each level of the credentials/School of Ministry includes self-study and/or class attendance designations. You are required to bring the textbook and completed workbook to those classes designated for attendance in the respective level and to return the self-study course workbooks completed to the conference office. These are required steps in the credentialing/School of Ministry process. The required attendance classes are offered in the spring and autumn.
