Julie Ely

Retreat Speaker

Join us for a meaningful weekend of encouragement, connection, & spiritual growth as we discover the beauty of living in authentic Christian community. Through inspiring teaching from Julie Ely, heartfelt worship, & intentional fellowship, you'll be reminded that we were created to walk with God & with one another. Come expecting to be refreshed, strengthened by the support of your sisters in Christ, & encouraged to deepen your faith as you experience the power of abiding together in Him.

Registration: $115 per person
(includes lodging & meals)

Retreat is for women 18 years & older. Child care is not provided.*

*Space is limited! Register by 9/30 & get a FREE retreat t-shirt!

ABOUT JULIE

Julie Ely has served in various roles in ministry from youth pastor, worship minister, co-pastor/church planter, educator, to her current role as an LADC-MH Candidate (alcohol & drug/mental health counselor). She has led worship seminars & has participated in national ministry events for the IPHC over the years. She directed SCU's One Voice for 14 years while serving as Associate Professor.

However, her greatest accomplishment is being the wife to Steve Ely, the mom to sons, Tal & Devin, the mom-in-love to Kelley & Joely, and her newest role as JJ to her two grandsons, Tatum & Paxton.
